

Five Welfare Vehicles Donated to Five Child Welfare Institution in the Areas Affected by the Kumamoto Earthquake

TOKYO, Japan –March 8, 2017 – ORIX Miyauchi Foundation announced today that it has donated five welfare vehicles to five child welfare institution in Kumamoto prefecture as part of its ongoing efforts to help the recovery from the Kumamoto Earthquake of April 2016. Recipients of the vehicles were selected by the Japan National Council of Social Welfare.

The ORIX Miyauchi Foundation is the successor to the ORIX Social Fund established in April 2006 with the aim of providing ongoing support in fields beyond the scope of corporate activities. This includes social welfare, nurturing of children and youth to be future leaders, and the promotion of music and arts. The ORIX Miyauchi Foundation took over the ORIX Social Fund's activities in December 2010 after receiving approval as a public interest incorporated foundation, and subsequently changed its current name in June 2014.

Donations of welfare vehicles by the ORIX Miyauchi Foundation have continued since fiscal year<sup>1</sup> 2006, with a total of 85 vehicles donated to 84 social welfare corporations nationwide as of the end of fiscal year 2016. Seven vehicles of them were donated to seven social welfare corporations in Kumamoto prefecture as part of its ongoing efforts to help the recovery from the Kumamoto Earthquake.

Looking ahead, the ORIX Miyauchi Foundation will continue to engage in activities that contribute to the realization of a truly charitable and prosperous society.
