

Welfare Vehicles Donated to Four Social Welfare Corporations in Fukushima, Oita, Fukuoka, and Okayama Prefectures

TOKYO, Japan –January 14, 2015—ORIX Miyauchi Foundation announced today that it has donated four welfare vehicles to four social welfare corporations in Fukushima, Oita, Fukuoka, and Okayama prefectures.

The ORIX Miyauchi Foundation is the successor to the ORIX Social Fund established in April 2006 with the aim of providing ongoing support in fields beyond the scope of corporate activities. This includes social welfare, the nurturing of children and youth to be future leaders, and musical and cultural arts. The ORIX Miyauchi Foundation took over the ORIX Social Fund's activities in December 2010 after receiving approval as a public interest incorporated foundation, and subsequently changed its current name in June 2014.

Donations of welfare vehicles have continued since fiscal 2006, with a total of 69 vehicles donated to 68 social welfare corporations nationwide by fiscal 2013. In fiscal 2014, the ORIX Miyauchi Foundation donated four welfare vehicles to social welfare corporations in Fukushima, Oita, Fukuoka, and Okayama prefectures that were struggling with welfare vehicles shortage.
