

ORIX Bank's First Consulting-type Community Space "ORIX BANK GINZA PLAZA" Opened on April 9

TOKYO, Japan - April 9, 2018- ORIX Bank Corporation ("ORIX Bank") announced today that it has opened the "ORIX BANK GINZA PLAZA."

Entrance

Seminar room

ORIX BANK GINZA PLAZA is the first consulting-type community space opened by ORIX Bank. Our staff will provide support concerning various bank products that are their full-time specialty. In addition to suggesting plans tailored to customers' particular needs, staff will provide explanations of real estate investment loans and other products that are the our particular strengths, consultation for asset management, and assistance in application procedures for the various products. The seminar room will be used to hold original seminars regularly to impart information on taxes, inheritance, and other such matters in advance of current trends.

ORIX Bank has been operating on the core strategy of providing specialized niche services through internet banking, without branches. Now, in adding the ORIX BANK GINZA PLAZA as a new sales channel, ORIX Bank will pursue a new business strategy that fuses its internet presence with its real brick-and-mortar presence. Furthermore, we will also contribute to the development of new products and services with efforts to grasp our customers' diverse needs in a timely manner.

We will continue being close to our customers with the aim of making ORIX Bank familiar to them.
