

Kintetsu Group and ORIX Auto Enter Business Partnership for Car Sharing Business

TOKYO, Japan – March 20, 2019 – Kintetsu Group and ORIX Auto Corporation (“ORIX Auto”) announced today that they have entered a business partnership for car sharing business with the aim of improving the transport convenience of Kintetsu Railway Co., Ltd. (“Kintetsu”) rail lines. A total of 22 car sharing vehicles will be distributed among 20 stations centered around the Kintetsu lines from March 21 to the end of April.

Kintetsu Group is developing its bus, taxi and rental car, in order to provide customers using Kintetsu line with intermodal passenger transport options. The addition of a car sharing option will enhance its intermodal passenger transport system, and thereby improve customer convenience.

Since ORIX Auto launched “ORIX CarShare”, Japan’s first car sharing business in 2002, it has increased both the number of its car sharing stations and its members every year. ORIX CarShare operates 1,695 stations, primarily in the Tokyo metropolitan and Kinki areas (As of September 30, 2018). Through its tie-up with the Kintetsu Group, ORIX Auto intends to further expand its car sharing business.

ORIX CarShare

For this business tie-up, Kintetsu Group will select appropriate spaces from parking lots owned by them, and these will be used by ORIX Auto as ORIX CarShare stations. To mark the business partnership, a “Kintetsu Line & ORIX CarShare Tie-up Commemorative Campaign” will run from March 21 to September 30, 2019.

Customers can search for car sharing stations and make reservations through the ORIX CarShare website and app, as well as through “d car share ®.”

Going forward, Kintetsu Group and ORIX Auto aim to improve both customer convenience and the quality of their services with their respective strengths.
