

ORIX Auto to Partner with New Rakuten CarShare Service

TOKYO, Japan - March 1, 2022 - ORIX Auto Corporation (“ORIX Auto”) announced today that it has entered a partnership with Rakuten Group, Inc. (“Rakuten”). Starting today, customers will be able to use ORIX CarShare services via Rakuten CarShare*¹, Rakuten’s car sharing reservation service.

Rakuten CarShare is a car sharing reservation service for Rakuten members, provided in collaboration with various car sharing businesses. Rakuten members can access the approximately 1,700 ORIX CarShare stations*² across Japan via exclusive Rakuten CarShare plans. Rakuten CarShare requires no basic monthly fees, and usage fees are set at 230 yen (tax included) per 15 minutes; it also offers multiple rate plans such as discounted 6-hour packages for extended use and nighttime packages.

Rakuten CarShare wishes to provide even first-time users of car sharing services with peace of mind; to this end, in addition to normal coverage, it offers free support for punctures, lock-outs, emergency roadside gasoline supplies, and replacement vehicle costs in case of accident or malfunction.

On the official Rakuten CarShare website, Rakuten members can search for car sharing stations, and make reservations and payments. Members only pay when they use the service, and receive one Rakuten Point for each 100 yen they spend; Rakuten Points can be used to pay for Rakuten CarShare services as well.

ORIX Auto has previously collaborated with telecommunications companies and railway companies*³ to increase the number of ORIX CarShare stations and expand the range of its services. By working together with Rakuten, which boasts a vast membership, and its new car sharing platform, ORIX Auto will enable more customers than ever before will be able to use cars with convenience.

ORIX Auto will continue its efforts to popularize car sharing, with the goal of responding to the diverse needs of its customers.
