Policies for Share Cancellation

At the Board of Directors meeting held on October 28, 2019, ORIX approved a policy regarding cancellation of its own shares under which, in principle, ORIX shall limit its total holdings of its own shares to an amount equal to 5% of its total number of issued shares and shall cancel any shares exceeding such amount. While the above policy remains unchanged, ORIX has decided to cancel its own shares in excess of 2% of the total number of issued shares for the purpose of optimizing the number of own shares.
