

Grand Opening of Cross Garden Chofu Scheduled for April 28, 2017

TOKYO, Japan – March 21, 2017 – ORIX Corporation (“ORIX”) announced today that the grand opening of Cross Garden Chofu is scheduled for April 28, 2017.

Cross Garden Chofu is a commercial facility constructed on the site of the former Chofu Sports Center, which closed in June, 2014. Located along the Koshu Kaido (National Route 20), it will offer convenient access by both car and train, just a four-minute walk from Shibasaki Station on the Keio Line, and an eight-minute walk from Tsutsujigaoka Station, also on the Keio Line.

The front of the building facing the Koshu Kaido will feature an open plaza, with plantings—primarily a variety of trees—designed to harmonize with the existing trees along the Koshu Kaido, creating a comfortable environment for visitors.

A total of 25 stores centered on everyday needs are expected to open at Cross Garden Chofu, including a supermarket, a digital and home appliance store, and a drug store, as well as sundries and casual clothing stores and restaurants, creating a bustling facility that is convenient, fun and rooted in the local community.

ORIX will continue to offer its vision for new lifestyles that lead to richer everyday lives, as it actively invests in and develops retail facilities that are appreciated by their communities and which contribute to their reinvigoration.
